Tri-Rail/Metrorail transfer station. To view the map, schedules, and pricing of the Metrorail system, please visit the Metrorail website.

FREE PARKING

For those who plan to drive to the event, here are the steps to obtain your free parking pass!

- When you pull into the Miami Tower parking garage (adjacent to the Hyatt Regency and connected by a covered walk-way), you will be prompted to collect a ticket.
- Please visit the AWARE for All check-in/registration table in front of the RiverFront North Room (just follow signs to “AWARE for All Information Alley” upon your arrival).
- Once you check-in to AWARE for All, please alert the CISCRP staff that you have self-parked in the Miami Tower parking garage. We will provide you with a “parking chaser.”
- Upon your departure from the event, please insert your original ticket as you exit the garage. After the original ticket is inserted into the machine, the machine will read, “Pay X amount.”
- Please insert the “parking chaser” ticket. This will act as your form of payment. No matter what amount the machine reads, your parking chaser will cover it!

WHAT IS THE GOAL/OBJECTIVE OF THIS EVENT?

AWARE for All is an educational program free and open to the public for the purpose of providing information to help people make informed decisions about clinical research participation. Since 2003, AWARE for All Clinical Research Education Day has been offered over 50 times in cities across the US, and we are enthusiastic to bring this important program to the Miami Community. CISCRP has teamed with research and community partners to provide quality speakers and information on clinical research, and nearly 100% of the 15,000+ attendees have rated the program as excellent and highly informative. The program will feature free health checks, an Information Alley/Exhibit Area, meaningful presentations from prominent Miami-based medical professionals and community patients, as well as free food and giveaways. For any additional questions, please feel free to email ellyngetz@ciscrp.org.

WHO IS CISCRP?

Founded in 2003, The Center for Information and Study on Clinical Research Participation (CISCRP) is a nonprofit organization founded for the purpose of educating the public, patients, the media, and policy makers in order to promote greater understanding and awareness of the clinical research process. CISCRP is not involved in recruiting patients for clinical trials, nor is it involved in conducting clinical trials. Our staff and board of advisors consist of individuals with highly diverse backgrounds: including government, clinical research, healthcare, and advocacy communities. CISCRP is funded by generous donations from a wide variety of sources, including individuals, research institutions, corporations and foundations.
